RAFFLES HEADED BURGLAR GANG,

Pugitive "Dr." Bolin's New Rochelle House Was Headquarters for Thieves.

Bolin, the accused burglar who has ed as a physician and a man of means and gained the confidence esteem of the people of New carance of his black-eyed wife, police of that city are seeking to show to-day that the mysterious pluy-sician, chemist, real estate dealer and clever talker was none other than the leader of a gang of burglars who ter-rorised the country homes along the Sound and through Long Island, West-These burgiars at times worked with a motor beat or launch, and at other with an automobile. One remarkable and interesting dis severy made by the police several days ago was that a woman was often with the burgiars. Many times she has been seed in the automobile when it was sourrying through the country, and a recent robbery, when the burgiars at a recent recisery, when the surgians used a launch, the woman's foot tracks were plainty visible.

The pelice believe if Bolin can be captured and made to talk that not only will the identity of the woman be learned, but that a bold gang of thieves, the have stolen fortunes in the past months, will be run to earth.

Boiln's handsome home, No. 16 Summit avanua, in the Huguenot section of New Rocchelle, is deserted to-day. He which was valued at $5,000 before he speet between $1,000 and $1,000 on improvements. There is also costly furniturn in the house, and then there are the corriagre and two handsome bay hores which were driven by Bolin when he was cutting his wide swath is New Pochelle and working his way into the inner circles of society.

Bolin's criminal record shows that his common-law wife was Gussie Lichtenstein, who is recorded as haying served asversal terms on the island for immorsi conduct. The woman has also caused Bolin's arrest for beating her. A woman who was known as Gussie Resembers, alias Goodman, was once arrested with Bolln in connection with the sheet of silks valued at $5,000. That the two Gussies were one and the same is the opinion of the police.

Bolin's present wife is also said to be

Special Sale of Anglo-Turkish Rugs

So much resembling the real Orientals that you can scarcely tell the difference.

Lovers of Oriental rugs should not pass these by because they are American made. We want you to see them. So closely have the American rug makers imitated the Oriental hand-made product, that you would think they came from the Far East except for the fact that they are a little more regularly made, perhaps, and better finished than the product of the Orientals. These come from the Whittall Mills, of Worcester, Mass, and are in a variety of delighful patterns and colorings. The prices are about one-third what Oriental rugs would cost you.

The sizes run all the way from the little door rug to the great room rug and there are many narrow and wide hall sizes, so that any room or any hall or stairs may be perfectly fitted.

We invite an inspection of these beautiful American Rugs. Small Sizes. 36x72 inches; regularly $10.50, for.....$7.25 55x90 inches; regularly $19.50, for......$18.75 Hall and Stair Sizes.
